(a) When a wholesale dealer in liquors maintains a separate department on the premises for the retailing of distilled spirits, and the retail sales of distilled spirits normally represent 90 percent or more of the volume of distilled spirits sold, the dealer may "constructively" receive all distilled spirits in the retail department. Sales involving a wholesale transaction may be "constructively" sold through the wholesale department.

(1) Receipts. In lieu of maintaining and preparing the records required by §§ 194.225 and 194.226, a wholesale dealer may constructively receive all distilled spirits in its retail department. In this case, the receiving document will serve as a receipt for (through) the wholesale department and a disposition (transfer) to the retail department. The receiving document will be maintained by the retail department, as required by § 194.234.

(2) Dispositions. In lieu of the records required by § 194.226, a wholesale dealer may constructively sell distilled spirits from its retail department to other dealers.
